	Petition dated 21-7-38 from Mr. Y. Ramachandra Rao, Proprietor Sri Devi Power Press, Bangalore, praying withdrawal of the case against him before the City Magistrate, Bangalore (C.C. 1233/37-38), under Sections 3 and 12 of the Mysore Press Act.
	1. The petition is submitted for perusal.
G	2. The Registrar of Authorised Publications says in his letter (Flag G) that the proprietor of Sri Devi Power Press has complied with the rules regarding imprint and that no action can be taken against him whereas it is seen from the petition of P.V.D. as well as the letter from the Secretary, Mysore Congress (linked file) that a case has been launched against the printer of the book in question. It is not clear under what circumstances the case has been launched
	4. The question of withdrawing the case had gone to the Dist. Magt. which is evidenced by the endorsement issued by him (Flag K.) ~~to~~ he is not in favour of withdrawing the case.

22/1 16 Rule 6 of the Rules framed under the Printing Press and Newspapers Act of 1867, provides that prosecutions for infringement of the provisions of the Act shall be instituted by the Registrar of Authorised Publications in Mysore. Allegations in para 1 of the petition show that the police have placed the charge sheet in the present case. It may however be observed that there is no definite legislative enactment debarring prosecution of offences under the Act except on a complaint by the Registrar. It is therefore doubtful if the Court's jurisdiction is barred to entertain the complaint. As the point is not free from doubt, it is open to the party to raise this technical plea before the Court and obtain a ruling.

17 The District Magistrate is apparently not in favour of withdrawal of the prosecution and wants that the law

~~XXXX

Letter No.Gl-634/37-38, dated the 19th April 1938, from the District Magistrate, Mysore District, Mysore, to the Registrar of Authorised Publications in Mysore, Bangalore.

I have the honour to enclose herewith a copy of the book " ಶರಣರ ಕುಂಕುಮ ವೃತ್ತಿ ಸರಣಿ " which is being sold in Mysore. From the facing page of the book it is seen that it has been printed at Sri Devi Power Press, Sultanpet, -- Bangalore City. The author of the book is not noted. The name of the publishers is noted as a set of rowdies of Mysore City, " ವಂಕರ ಕಂಠ, ಪ್ರಕಾಶಕರು ". According to sec. 3 of the Printing Presses and Books Act, XXV of 1867, every book or paper printed within the Territories of Mysore, shall have printed legibly on it the name of the printer and the place of printing and (if the Books or paper be published) of the publisher and the place of publication. The name of the publishers as given on the book does not seem to be a sufficient compliance with the requirement of Section 3 of the Act and that the omission to print the ~~ture~~ true name of the publishers amounts to an infringement of provisions of the Said Section.

I, therefore, request you kindly to institute proceedings for an offence under Section 12 of the Act as -- required by Rule 6 of the Rules under the said Act.

SIR,

Subject:—

With reference to your letter No.P.1147 Law. 201-37 dated 27th August 1938 calling for my opinion whether Mr. M.N. Seetharamaiya, Shop-keeper, City New Market, Bangalore, who is ascertained to be the publisher of the Book, "Sivapura Congress Vyakthi Parichaya" may be prosecuted under the Printing Press and Registration of Books Act of 1867, I have the honour to state that one Ramachendra Rao, who is the manager of the Sree Devi Press, where the book under reference was printed, is prosecuted for offences under Sections 3 and 12 of the Press Act and the case (C.C.No.1233/37-38) is pending disposal before the City Magistrate, Bangalore. It is ascertained that the case has reached the defence stage and is likely to be disposed of very early. Mr. M.N. Sitaramaiya, the publisher of the Book is said to have been examined by the Police as a prosecution witness in the case against the Manager of the Press. The City Superintendent of Police is of opinion that the question of prosecuting the publisher may await the result of the case now pending in the Court. In view of the opinion furnished by the Registrar of Authorised Publications in Mysore, Bangalore, that no action can be taken against the accused, (please see copy of his letter No.R.A.P.133 dated 28th April 1938) forwarded

Subject:— Re. the name of the Publisher of the book called "SIVAPURA CONGRESS VYAKTI PARICHAYA".

In continuation of this office letter No.J1-48/38-39 dated 17-10-1938 on the above subject, I have the honour to state that the Superintendent of Police, Bangalore City, reports that the case against Y. Ramachendra Rao, Managing Proprietor of Sri Devi Press, who had been charged under Sections 3 and 12 of the Press Act ended in the acquittal of the accused on the ground that the Police were not competent to launch the prosecution in conformity with rule 6 of the Notification No.7406/ Misc. 2172 dated 23-12-18

2. Mr. Sitharamayya, Shop-keeper, City New Market, Bangalore, referred to in your letter No.P. 1147 Law 201-37 dated 27-8-1938 has been examined as a witness in the case. He has stated in his deposition that one Suryanarayana Pandit of Mysore is the author of the booklets, that he (the witness) only suggeste the design and name of the title page and that he thought the party who had brought the Manuscript (Suryanarayana Pandit) was the Publisher. The City Superintendent of Police, reports that this Suryanarayana Pandit has not been examined at any stage of th proceedings. Information regarding this Suryanarayana Pandit could not be gathered as he is reported to be a resident of Mysore

3. In these circumstances, it may not be advisible to prosecute Mr. M.N. Sitharamaiya unless on enquiry of Suryanarayana Pandit fresh facts leading to support proceedings against the former could be elicited.

Copies of the judgment and the deposition referred to above are enclosed for perusal.

I know the accused. I placed order with him for printing 2000 copies. Sivapur Congress Vyakti Parichaya - Ex.P3- is my order form. The accused charged me Rs.35-8-0 and I have paid the same. I received all the copies within a space of 3 or 4 days.

Cross-examination.

In all the books supplied to me, there was a page similar to Ex.P. 5 (a). But, for the absence in this page Ex.D1. and P2 are similar. P2 does not contain advertisement matter we see in Ex. D1. On behalf of the authors I placed order for the booklets. I suggested the design and name of the title page. It is the author A. Surayanaraya Pandit who suggested it to me. Mr. Suryanarayana Pandit had brought the manuscripts with him. I thought he was the publisher. The name of the Mysore City on the title page relates to the place of publication.
